SPEECH CHAIRMAN BUSY MAN

MISSOULA--

Dr. R. Wayne Pace, chairman of the Department of Speech Communication at the University of Montana has a full schedule for the next three months.

As executive secretary of the National Society for the Study of Communication, Pace has been responsible over the past three years for the handling of memberships, finances and the publication of The Journal of Communication. He will present his final annual report at the winter meeting of the Society to be held in Los Angeles, Dec. 28.

As chairman of the Business and Professional Speaking Interest Group of the Speech Association of America, Dr. Pace will chair the annual business meeting of BPS in Los Angeles during the convention of SAA, Dec. 26-30. Dr. Pace is also supervising the preparation of a monograph on Teaching Business and Professional Speaking to be distributed at the business meeting in Los Angeles.

Dr. Pace is also chairman of the Committee on Interpersonal and Organizational Communication of the Western Speech Association. He will chair meetings at the annual convention in Sacramento, Nov. 20-22. He will also be chairman of a sectional meeting at the convention on the topic "The Practice of Oral Communication in Organizations." Dr. Pace will appear before the Executive Council in behalf of a petition to make the Committee an official Interest Group of the Western Speech Association.

Dr. Pace is also one of the nominees for Delegate-at-Large to the Western Speech Association Legislative Assembly. WSA represents the professional interests of teachers of Speech in 12 states in the west.
